

RECPAC

Local REALTORS® focused on local political issues.

The Real Estate Community Political Action Committee (RECPAC) helps the members and friends of GAAR and CARNM address local political issues that affect central New Mexico's real estate industry and community.

2018 is an important year for local politics.

Out-of-state interest groups are already pouring money into our market to influence both our candidates and voters. As you know, their influence isn't always in the best interest of New Mexicans.

With your contribution, we can support and inform local pro-REALTOR® candidates and educate the general public on legislative issues affecting our local real estate market and our community.

Join RECPAC and Make Your Voice HEARD.

While RECPAC suggests a $15 contribution, any amount you give will help.

We are looking for contributions from each member so local voices are not drowned out by out-of-state influences. And, since RECPAC is not part of the REALTORS® Political Action Committee (RPAC), 100% of your contributions are dedicated to local political issues and candidates.
